

9.00	Introduction
	BioRegional's One Planet Living programme Sue Riddlestone, Executive Director and Co-founder, BioRegional One Planet Living - the Global Context Video message from Achim Steiner, Executive Director, United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) The Challenges of the 21st Century and the need for a uniting framework Sunand Prasad, President of the RIBA
9.25	Seminar 1 – Creating sustainable places – international best practice
	Kindly sponsored by Fulcrum Consulting Key lessons: business case for sustainable infrastructure and zero carbon communities - international lessons. How can we cost-effectively create sustainable infrastructure to support local sustainability? This session will explore how we can make the business case for putting in place the energy, recycling, water, and food infrastructure to create places that meet more of their needs from local renewable and recycled resources. It will look at how we can link places to the local hinterland and examine the social and economic benefits of bioregionalism. It will look at lessons for zero carbon delivery using international case studies. Chair Pooran Desai, Sustainability Director, BioRegional Quintain Ltd and Technical Director, BioRegional One Planet Living programme Panel and respondents: Professor Sir Ghilleain Prance, Scientific Director of the Eden Project Tom Andrews, Director of Food and Farming, Soil Association Hank Dittmar, Chief Executive, The Prince's Foundation for the Built Environment Professor Paul Ekins, Professor of Energy & Environment Policy, King's College London Case study 1 – Geof Syphers Sonoma Mountain Village, California <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Innovative financial and technical partnerships for integrated zero carbon systems. Creating local employment opportunities during construction and occupational phases of development as a business case. Case study 2 – Chris Drew Masdar City, Abu Dhabi <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Creating a car-free city to promote zero carbon lifestyles. Targeting zero waste and integrating energy and waste. Case study 3 – Paulo Reis Silva Mata de Sesimbra, Portugal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Integrating local habitat and biodiversity into zero carbon development. Creating local food networks to reduce to support zero carbon.
11.00	Break and opportunity to visit exhibition stands
11.20	Seminar 2 – Sustaining zero carbon communities – delivering in the UK
	Kindly sponsored by Ferrier Pearce Key lessons: economics of building and managing long term zero carbon communities – specifics of the UK situation. A lot of work has been done on green design but what can we do to deliver, maintain and enhance the benefits long term, particularly with respect to zero carbon? Real life lessons will be explored in how to engage the community and create a legacy. How can we make the business model stack up? Chair John Walker, Chairman of the Eco-towns Challenge Panel, former Chief Executive of the Commission for the New Towns and Deputy Chief Executive of Milton Keynes Development Corporation. Panel and respondents Richard Simmons, Chief Executive, CABE Duncan Price, Director (UK), Camco Stephen Stone, CEO, Crest Nicholson PLC Case study 4 – Nick James One Brighton <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Estate management and Energy Services Companies in practice in the UK. Community Interest Companies. Long term delivery of zero carbon in the UK. Case study 5 – Mark Watson One Planet Products <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can green supply chain management ease delivery and reduce cost? Case study 6 – Dan Epstein London 2012 Olympics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Implementation challenges in large scale projects. Securing a legacy.

13.00	Lunch and exhibition
	Opportunity to mingle with speakers and other participants. Stands are vetted to be suppliers of products and services which genuinely contribute to sustainability.
14.00	Seminar 3 – Providing greener choice
	Kindly sponsored by Wood Energy Limited Key lessons: Zero carbon and One Planet Living in retrofit and existing communities, making it relevant to the public, communicating benefits. Moving away from a focus mainly on new communities to include existing ones, how can we provide products and services which enable people to lead high quality lives within a sustainable ecological footprint? How we communicate the benefits of zero carbon homes? How can we build successful businesses offering greener choices? What is the role of the public sector in this process? Chair Kevin McCloud, Design Guru, TV presenter, Grand Designs Panel and respondents Jill Rutter, Director of Strategy and Sustainable Development, Defra Mike Beaven, Sustainability Leader, Arup Associates Professor Peter Clegg, Feilden Clegg Bradley Studios Case study 7 – Gin Tidridge B&Q One Planet Home <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How can a business achieve One Planet Living? Signposting the person in the street to greener choices. Case study 8 – Willy de Backer Global Footprint Network <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Collecting environmental data on choices and using this to inform strategies at local and national levels. Case study 9 – Chris Reid One Planet Sutton <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How local authorities might support sustainable choices. Retrofitting homes and lifestyles. An opportunity to reinvigorate Local Agenda 21.
15.35	Break
15.55	Seminar 4 - Creating solutions
	Kindly sponsored by Camco Key lessons: Taking the learning forward to create solutions for your own projects. A facilitated interactive session between key practitioners, presenters and panel members to discuss in greater depth how the sustainability solutions and burning issues raised during the day can be applied to your current and future work. The session will also provide an opportunity to continue the discussions and networking from the OnePlanetOneDay online forum. Led by Kevin McCloud, Design Guru, TV presenter, Grand Designs Sue Riddlestone, Executive Director and Co-founder, BioRegional
16.45	Summing up
	Sue Riddlestone , Executive Director and Co-founder, BioRegional
16.50	Networking over mulled wine and seasonal treats
17.30	Close
Thanks to our session sponsors for their kind support of OnePlanetOneDay      FULCRUMCONSULTING	